

Debate on education strategy

Thursday, August 06, 2009

EXPERTS from across the globe will converge on Bahrain later this year for the launch of an annual event that aims to improve the quality of education worldwide.

The Education Project will showcase case studies of innovation and success.

It has been initiated by Crown Prince and BDF Deputy Supreme Commander Shaikh Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, who is also chairman of the Economic Development Board (EDB).

It will take place from October 15 to 17 at the Shaikh Isa Cultural Centre and National Library, Juffair.

Confirmed speakers include Harvard Graduate School of Education Change Leadership Group co-director Tony Wagner and Knowledge is Power Programme development officer chief David Wick.

"Sustainable economic growth that provides opportunity for all is only achievable with the right education system in place," said EDB chief executive Shaikh Mohammed bin Essa Al Khalifa.
